

Saturday, January 08, 2011

Noblesville pastor leads prayer at Statehouse

By Steven Furlow

sfurlow@thetimes24-7.com

Saturday, January 08, 2011

Pastor of the First Christian Church in Noblesville John Davis led the Indiana State House in prayer from the House floor earlier this week.

Davis was invited by Rep. Kathy Richardson, (R-Noblesville) to lead the prayer Jan. 6.

"It was an honor to have my pastor, John Davis at the Statehouse and to have him lead us in prayer," said Richardson. "His opening prayer set a great tone for session, and it was a privilege to have him and Stacy with me at the Statehouse."

Before the opening of session each day members of the House of Representatives have the opportunity to invite religious leaders from their communities to start our proceedings with a prayer.

"Starting session with a prayer is a great thing and I was thrilled to be invited to the Statehouse," said Davis. "The Statehouse feels like a sacred place and it was an exciting experience to be in a room where the decisions that influence the state of Indiana are being made."

Photo provided by Pace Media

At Thursday's opening prayer Stacey Davis, from left, Rep. Kathy Richardson and the Rev. John Davis.

Related Links:

">Content © 2011

">Software © 1998-2011 Iup! Software, All Rights Reserved